

Deputy Commissioner Kapurthala interacted with Students at District Employment and Business Bureau

Deputy Commissioner Er D P S Kharbanda visited the District Employment and Business Bureau today and spoke to the students at Christ King Convent School about their careers in a series of daily visits there. He said that any place in life can be achieved with high thinking and hard work. He said that one must constantly strive for the attainment of their goal while facing the difficulties in life.

He asked the youths to take full advantage of the ongoing activities of the District Employment and Business Bureau and to get the maximum benefit of the mega employment fairs held in the district under the 'Home-to-Home Employment Mission' of the Punjab Government. Making them aware of the importance of self-employment, he urged the students not only to leave their jobs behind, but also to start their own business, not to seek employment but to become employers.

He said that for this purpose many skills development was being undertaken in the district, where youngsters were being provided free training in various occupations and after training, they were financed by banks with huge subsidies to establish their own businesses is also being provided.

He urged the students to take maximum advantage of this government-provided facility