

Large Cancer Detection Camp at Central Jail Kapurthala

A large Cancer and General Medical Examination Camp was set up at Central Jail, Kapurthala today, during which more than 1000 detainees were examined by experts from the World Cancer Care Institute and Civil Hospital Kapurthala, giving them medicines as per the need for medical tests.

Hon'ble District and Sessions Judge Sh. Kishore Kumar and Deputy Commissioner Er D P S Kharbanda inaugurated the first of its kind camps in a jail in Punjab with the joint venture of the World Cancer Care Organization, District Administration, District Legal Services Authority, Health Department .During this time They inspected the camp and conducted their own tests.

