No. 18274-18279/MA Dated:- 07.04.2020

Sub: Financial package announced by Government of Haryana in view Pandemic disease – COVID-19 – Subsistence Financial Assistance to the construction workers – reg.

The Principal Secretary to Govt. Haryana, Labour Department vide letter No. HBOCWWB/2020/JS/3884-3905 dated 06.04.2020 (copy attached) has intimated that 4,56,446 construction workers have registered online for subsistence allowance out of which 71,043 workers are covered under MMPSY scheme and 34,782 cases in which both husband and wife are registered with the Haryana Building & Other Workers' Welfare Board and have been excluded from the list being part of one family.

So, HBOCWW Board has disbursed first installment of subsistence assistance to remaining 3,50,621 construction workers' @ Rs. 1000/- per family on 30.03.2020 directly in their bank accounts through NPCI. However, benefit could not be transferred to 42,150 beneficiaries due to failure of transactions due to various reasons like Aadhar mapping not done with bank account or inactive Aadhar etc. for which the corrective measure is to be taken by the beneficiary. The Labour Department has provided the search facility at the labour portal URL: https://hrylabour.gov.in/Bocw_support where anybody can check the status regarding the eligibility/payment of financial assistance by using Aadhar number.

You are, therefore, directed to ensure due publicity of these instructions in order to facilitate/general public.
