ORDER

Sub: - Regulation of transportation of bovine animals, prohibitory order thereof.

Whereas, it has come to the notice that bovine animals are being transported through truck and other means, outside the district Udhampur illegally for the purpose of being slaughtered and whereas, this has caused annoyance to large section of people of district Udhampur.

Whereas, it appears to me that unless immediate preventive measures are not taken to stop this practice forthwith this may endanger the public and may also result in disturbance of public tranquility.

Now, therefore I Dr. Piyush Singla, IAS, District Magistrate Udhampur, in exercise of powers vested in me under section 144 Cr. Pc. Hereby prohibit the transportation of bovine animals such as cows, Oxen, Buffalos etc. within the limits of district Udhampur to any place on the conditions as under:-

“Bovine animals should be transported from limits of Udhampur district to any place outside district, under a written authority of District Magistrate Udhampur which will be issued on providing of a certificate issued by a qualified veterinary Doctor .The mode of transportation, timing of move number of animals to be carried etc. shall be covered as per the conditions prescribed under the permit.”

The order come into force with immediate effect and shall remain in force for the period of two months unless rescinded earlier. This order shall not apply in case of government agencies who take the cattle for departmental purpose. This order shall be notified for the information in following manner.

1. Announcement through Radio.
2. By affixing copies of this order on the public notice boards of various offices of Revenue and Animal Husbandry Department.
