Independence Day Message

President cum Chief Counsellor District Panchayat Union Territory of Lakshadweep, Kavaratti-682 555

The people of these tiny islands are really delighted to join hands with the corers of our fellow citizens in celebrating the 73rd Independence Day of our great nation.

On this solemn occasion, let us all together pray for our great freedom fighters who sacrificed their life for making our country free and independent. Let us also remember our brave soldiers who struggle hard to protect and safeguard the unity and integrity of our nation.

It is indeed our sacred duty to do everything possible to protect, cherish and nurture the freedom, unity, and integrity of our nation and to strive hard for a glorious future for our country. While joining with you in celebrating the Independence Day of our nation, I extend and convey my warm Independence Day greetings to you all.
