F.No.65/21/2017-Edn/AW - 1

Dated: 16.05.2020

PUBLIC NOTICE

It has come to the notice of Lakshadweep Administration that the Kerala University has deferred the exam schedule of Degree/PG courses and is scheduled to start from 26th May 2020. With regard to this, the Education Department, UTLA has appraised the Kerala University regarding the university students who have returned from Kerala to various islands of Lakshadweep during the national shutdown.

It is to inform to all the concerned students that the Kerala University has responded positively and may allow all the students from Lakshadweep (who have returned to various islands) to write the exams at a sub-centre at Kochi together and that too without the compulsory 14 days quarantine period requirement for any person arriving there. And the Lakshadweep Administration will provide transportation and ensure all the necessary arrangements well on time.
