Introduction of UT of Dadra and Nagar Haveli

Dadra and Nagar Haveli is a land locked Union Territory of India, situated at the western coast in the foothills of Western Ghats between the parallels of 20⁰ -0` and 20⁰-25` north and between meridian 72⁰-50` and 73⁰-15 of longitude east. It is bounded by Valsad district of Gujarat in the North- West and East, and Thane district of Maharashtra in the South and South East. It is composed of two enclaves: Dadra and Nagar Haveli. While Nagar Haveli located between Maharashtra and Gujarat, Dadra is an enclave which is a few kilometres north of Nagar Haveli in Gujarat. The capital city of Dadra and Nagar Haveli is Silvassa. The population of Dadra and Nagar Haveli is 343709 (as per 2011 population census).

Dadra and Nagar Haveli covers an area of 491 sq.km. Silvassa Municipal Council came in existence in the year 2006 and is formed of two towns namely Silvassa and Amli. Another 5 villages viz .Dadra, Naroli, Samarvarni, Masat and Rakholi were treated as non- statutory Census Towns in census 2011.Hence as per census -2011, the UT comprises of one Municipal Council, Five Census Towns and 65 villages.

The territory has hilly terrain especially towards the North-East and East where it is surrounded by ranges of Sahyadri Mountains(Western Hills).The terrain is intersected by the River Daman Ganga and its three tributaries. The river rises in the hill 64 kms. from the Western coast and discharges itself in the Arabian Sea at the port of Daman. The climate is moderate and generally healthy in the Central zone, though hot in summer season. The monsoon season is from June to September and the average rainfall of the UT is between 2000 to 2500 mm.

The nearest railway stations are Vapi and Bhilad situated in Gujarat is about 18 Kms. and 12 kms. respectively from Silvassa. The UT of D.N.H. is connected with National Highway No.48.

Dadra and Nagar Haveli came in existence on 17th December, 1779 as a result of treaty between Portuguese and Marathas. The Marathas assigned 72 villages at Portuguese in return of their friendship and the group of 72 villages came to be known as Dadra and Nagar Haveli. The Portuguese rules this Territory until its liberation on 2nd August, 1954. After liberation the Administration was carried out by local body known as Free Dadra and Nagar Haveli Administration till its merger with the Indian Union on 11th August , 1961. Consequently, the free Dadra and Nagar Haveli Administration was succeeded by formal statutory Administration headed by an Administrator(Governor).

Dadra and Nagar Haveli comprising of one Municipal Council, 5 Census Towns and 65 villages forms a single District with two subdivisions namely Silvassa and Khanvel. All the villages have been divided into 20 Gram Panchayats. The U.T. has no legislature. However, there is District Panchayat comprising of representatives from all village Panchayats which has been delegated powers and duties under Village Panchayat Rules. One seat of Lok Sabha has been allotted to the U.T. which is reserved for Scheduled Tribe.
