

EG Dist tops in physical achievement in schemes

CM lauded District Administration in Collector's Conference

Kakinada, November 30.

East Godavari district is in forefront in grounding of various units of government schemes during this financial year. As per the assessment made by the Planning Department, this district archived 88.1 percent average score in physical achievement and stood top in A category districts in the state. The other districts like Krishna, stood in second position by scoring 87.5 and Chittoor district, in third position, by securing 85 scoring .With regard to implementation various schemes, majority, 51 were in A category in the district This was reviewed in the Collectors conference held at Vijayawada on Saturday and Chief Minister Shri Nara Chandrababu Naidu lauded the District Collector Shri Kartikeya Misra and the team of officers for their efforts in grounding the schemes at field level .This was made possible by better performance in Water Resources, Agriculture and Cooperation, Horticulture and Sericulture, Social welfare, Tribal welfare, Labour and Employment, Women development and child welfare, Animal husbandry and Health, Medical and Family welfare departments in the district who were in A category.