

BRIEF INTRODUCTION TO KRA DAADI DISTRICT

Kra Daadi is a district in Arunachal Pradesh in north-eastern India. It was carved out of Kurung Kumey district on 7 February 2015.

The creation of Kra Daadi district was approved by the Arunachal Pradesh government of Nabam Tuki on 21 March 2013 under the Arunachal Pradesh (Re-Organization of Districts) (Amendment) Bill.

Kra Daadi was inaugurated by the then Chief Minister Nabam Tuki as the 19th district of Arunachal Pradesh on 7 February 2015.

Jamin, located 20 km away from Palin is the proposed headquarter of the district. It has two assembly constituencies, viz., Tali and Palin, covering eight circles viz., Palin, Jamin, Yangte, Chambang, Tarak Langdi, Gangte, Tali, and Pipsorang. Pania is a sub-division located few miles away from Palin and is administered by an independent Additional deputy commissioner.