Citizen Charter - Labour Office

Introduction
The office of the Assistant Inspector of Labour Mahe started functioning in Mahe Region in the year 1988.

The functions of this office are mainly enforcement of the various Labour Acts and rules in Mahe region. Since the Asst. Inspector of Labour, Mahe is delegated with the powers of Conciliation officer; he is also attending to conciliation proceedings in the event of Labour disputes for arriving at a settlement. When conciliation fails the disputes will be referred to the Labour department, Pondicherry for adjudication.

Child Labour Survey 1999
A child Labour survey on the drop out students from the schools of Mahe region was conducted during the year 1999 with the co-ordination of the Block development Office, Palloor. Out of the 62 drop out students identified 34 students were the residents of Mahe region and the remaining 28 students were the residents of Kerela State. Survey was conducted at the residence of the 34 students of Mahe region. As per the survey no child Labour was identified.
