Name and address of candidate Perseem Singh / o Rajinder Singh.
Vill:- Degwar, Teh. Haveli (Poonch)

Subject :—Maintenance of account of election expenses and lodging of true copy thereof.

Sir/Madam,

Your attention is invited to Section 77 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 which stipulates that every candidate at an election shall, either by himself or by his election agent, keep a separate and correct account of all expenditure in connection with the election between the date on which he has been nominated and the date of declaration of the result thereof, both dates inclusive.

2. Your attention is also invited to Section 78 of the said Act which further stipulates that every contesting candidate at an election shall, within thirty days from the date of election of the returned candidate, lodge with the District Election Officer, an account of the election expenses which shall be a true copy of the account kept by him or by his election agent under Section 77.
3. Even if a contesting candidate does not seriously contest the election, for any reason whatsoever, and incurs only a nominal expenditure on his security deposit, etc., he is required by law to lodge his account of election expenses.
4. A contesting candidate who fails to comply with the requirements of law regarding the lodging of account of election expenses is liable to be disqualified by the Election Commission under Section 10A or the Representation of the People-Act, 1951 for a period of three years.
5. The account of election expenses to be kept by a candidate or his election agent under Section 77 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 shall contain the particulars of expenditure, incurred/ authorised from day-to-day, as prescribed under Rule 86 of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961.
6. An Expenditure Register having day-to-day Account Register, Cash Register, Bank Register, Forms of Affidavit, Abstract Statement (Parts I-VI) and acknowledgement form is being furnished to you herewith. You are required to maintain your day to day account of election expenses in this very Register and in no other document. All supporting vouchers, bills, etc., should also be kept along with the Register arranged in proper chronological order at all times. An abstract statement of expenditure is also to be prepared by you after the declaration of result of election in Parts-I to VI of the format enclosed herewith.
7. All documents such as vouchers, receipts, acknowledgements, etc. in support of the expenditure incurred or authorised shall be obtained on day-to-day basis and shall be maintained in the correct chronological order along with the Register showing the day-to-day account.

8. You should make this Register and the supporting documents available for inspection if demanded at any time during the process of election by the District Election Officer, Returning Officer, Election Observer appointed by the Election Commission or any other such authority nominated by the Commission in this behalf. Failure to produce this Register when demanded will be considered as a major default on your part in maintaining your day-to-day account and you may render yourself liable to penal action under Section 171(1) of the Indian Penal Code.
9. This very Register in which you are to maintain your day-to-day account of election expenses should itself be filed by you as your account of election expenses after the election as required under Section 78 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 mentioned above. You should keep a copy of the account as maintained in that Register for your record and reference. Along with the Register, you must file the above mentioned abstract statement containing details of expenditure, and the same must be supported by an affidavit in the format enclosed. The affidavit should be sworn before a Magistrate of the First Class or an Oath Commissioner or a Notary Public.
10. It may be noted that Section 77 (1) has been amended vide Election and Other Related Laws (Amendment) Act, 2003. As per the amended provisions of "Explanation (1)" of this section, all expenditure incurred or authorised in connection with the election of the candidate by the political party which has set him up, any other association/body of persons or any other individual shall also be required to be included in the account of election expenses of the candidate under the said Section 77. The only exception is the expenses incurred on the travel of "leaders" of the political party for propagating the programme of the political party, who are covered under "Explanations 1 and 2 of Section 77(1)".
11. If you contest election from more than one constituency, you are required to maintain and lodge a separate account of your election expenditure in respect of each such constituency.
12. Kindly acknowledge receipt of the letter along with its enclosures immediately in the enclosed acknowledgment form.

[Signature]
Yours faithfully,

Returning Officer for

.....Parliamentary/Assembly Constituency.

* Strike off whichever is inapplicable.
