

ORDER

Whereas it is observed that there is mass gathering/congregation by various employees union, religious organizations, political parties, farmers, unions, labour unions etc., who intend to stage dharna/agitation for their demands very frequently. Such type of mass gathering/congregation leads to violation of SOP's of large public gathering/congregation issued by the Central government.

In order to contain the spread of Covid-19 epidemic, it is ordered that the office bearers of concerned agitating groups shall have to obtain prior permission from the respective Sub Divisional Officer (Civil) for such dharna/agitation. The organizer (s) will also have to submit an undertaking in writing to follow SOPs issued by Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India; Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Govt. of India as well as the Haryana Govt. regarding strictly following the preventive measures by maintaining social distancing norms and number of persons during the agitation as per norms, hygiene protocols and compulsorily wearing face masks. The office bearers are also advised to provide details of persons participating in the agitation so as to ensure 100% contact tracing in case of any future requirement.

Superintendent of Police, Kaithal should ensure that sufficient police force be deployed near each site to deal with any emergent situation.
