No.DCH/Relief/DM/2020- 1951

Dated: Hamirpur, April, 26th 2020

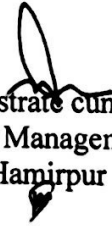

ORDER

In continuation of order no. 1870/DCH/Relief/DM/2020 dated 23rd April, 2020, it is clarified that:

- i. In respect of permissible activities specified in the afore-mentioned order, no separate permission shall be required for conduct of the permissible activity as such and it shall be intimation only. The Incident Commanders i.e. SDMs shall ensure coordination in enforcing of Curfew Orders so that the MHA Directive & Guidelines are properly implemented and monitored. However, all approvals otherwise statutorily required for carrying out any such permissible activity (e.g. approval of plans or consent to establish/operate etc.) shall continue to be required from competent authorities as per law.
- ii. Movement of materials/goods in goods carriage vehicles for any permissible activity shall also not require any curfew pass/permit subject to the condition that only one driver and helper shall be inside such good carriage vehicles.
- iii. COMPLIANCE OFFICERS of Government executing agencies shall given advance intimation of the work and the location of the work-site to the Incident Commanders i.e. SDMs before commencement of work at the site.

Any person contravening this order shall be liable for prosecution under Sections 269,270 and 188 of IPC 1860.

ISSUED under my hand and seal on April 26, 2020.
